Dear Alan,

I am acknowledging your letter of 25th August to John Campbell, who is on leave. He is returning next week but I think that in the meantime you may like to know that your proposal for the transfer of primary coverage responsibility for Rumanian Home and Regional Services from Caversham to Kyrenia is regarded by us as a logical proposition and that we would be prepared to accept the switch as soon as your people are ready.

Please let us know if any assistance is required in the recruitment of an additional Rumanian monitor.

I very much enjoyed seeing again when he visited Caversham last week.

*Sincerely yours,
Christopher Saltmarshe*
